Returning for its second edition on August 17th, 2024, the "Whale Tank 2.0" spearheaded by the Federation of Asian Biotech Associations, marks a significant milestone in the venture capital and biotech startup nexus. This flagship event not only catalyzes capital investment into pioneering life sciences ideas but also cements the path for revolutionary biotechnological advancements.

Conceived in collaboration with India's foremost biotech incubators and engaging international venture capital luminaries, the meet is a crucible where transformative biotech startups intersect with seasoned investors and policy-makers.

Our ambition is to sculpt a platform where angel investors, venture capitalists, and international funds can connect with the vibrant Indian biotech startup ecosystem. The "Whale Tank 2.0" promises to be an incubator for partnerships, fostering not only financial investment but also intellectual and infrastructural growth.

Join us at the forefront of biotechnological evolution, where your innovative ideas find the wings to soar into the global markets.

ABOUT FABA

The Federation of Asian Biotech Associations (FABA) is a non-profit organization that brings together biotechnology associations, individuals, startups, industries and governments from across Asia to promote the development and growth of the biotechnology industry in the region.

Established in 2004, FABA serves as a platform for its member organizations to exchange ideas, share best practices, and collaborate on initiatives that drive innovation and progress in biotechnology. With a vision to create a thriving biotechnology ecosystem, FABA works closely with government bodies, academia, and industry to provide support and resources to its members. This includes organizing conferences, workshops, and networking events, as well as advocating for policies and regulations that foster innovation and growth in the biotechnology sector.

FABA launched FABA Entrepreneurship division through organisation of Whale Tank event on 18th and 19th August 2022 in association with the leading incubation centres in the country.

The purpose of this event was to attract prospective investments in bio start-ups in their growth phase and strengthen India's startup ecosystem. The event received an overwhelming response by the attendees including venture capitalists, pharmaceutical firms, leading incubators, and students. The event witnessed participation of 200+ audience which includes 60 life sciences-based startups, 12 incubation centers, 7 investors and big Pharma and Biopharma industry leaders.

The startups got a chance to exhibit their technologies/products virtually on both the days. Of these 14 startups were shortlisted to pitch before the investors. For more details on FABA, visit www.biofaba.org.in
