Can There Be An Indian Way of Thinking?/ Are There Indian Ways of Thinking?

September 12-14, 2024

"...thinking is the freedom to call into question why many other traditions, cultures, and communities of thought have been excluded, disempowered, and marginalised because of reasons of region, religion, caste, race, ethnicity, or origin. In other words, in thinking about thinking, we circle back to fundamental and inescapable political and ethical questions."
